PRISON DOORS CLOSE ON BLUE GRASS BANKER.

Frankfort, Ky., February 19.—George B. Alexander of Paris, banker, and leader in the Blue Grass state, walked into the office of the state reformatory at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Alexander arrived in an automobile from Paris, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Kate Alexander. In another machine came Sheriff W. F. Talbot of Bourbon county, Deputy Sheriff J. O. Marshall, and Jailer Joe Paris and his wife. The women remained with Alexander until he went inside the gate, and while her father and his wife were sitting in the clerk's office as he was being entered on the prison books, Miss Kate Alexander was taken back to inspect the cell which has been assigned to Alexander. It is No. 8, in the lower tier of the new cell house, one of the pleasantest in the prison. The women brought a number of articles for Alexander's comfort and left them in the care of Warden Wells.

The leave taking was quiet and Alexander walked through the gate stoically. He was conducted first to the bath house and then to the hospital from which, attired in a suit of gray with the second grade gray cap on his head, he went to the Reformatory office and was measured and photographed. He will be put to work tomorrow in the accounting department of the Hoge-Montgomery Company, prison contractors. A special bed from the hospital had to be secured for Alexander, as he is an inch longer than the six feet three inch beds in the cell house.

Parts With His Dying Daughter.

Paris, Ky., February 19.—George Alexander, the convicted banker, was taken to the Frankfort penitentiary this morning to serve and indeterminate sentence of from 7 to 70 years. At 7:45 he was taken to Massie Hospital to see his daughter, Mrs. Edith Bronston, who is at the point of death from Bright's disease and double pneumonia.

DID YOU EVER GET LEFT?

Col. Sam W. Stairs, the genial editor of the Dover News, was a passenger up from Cincinnati last night on the C. & O.'s Maysville accommodation train, and despite the fact that Conductor King and brakeman Walter Worthington called out "Dover! Dover!" Editor Stairs was so engrossed in conversation with another party, telling of the wonders of the Dover Bottom and the Andulson water, that he never woke up to the fact that he had passed Dover until the brakeman called out "South Ripley!"

Result: Mr. Stairs had to hike down the railroad two miles to Dover. However, the moon was shining "up thar" and it is presumed the Colonel got home O. K.

HELD TO GRAND JURY FOR STEALING FISH.

Yesterday in Police Court Robert Rice was tried on a charge of petit larceny and was held over to the grand jury, his bond being placed at $100. Failing to procure same, he was sent to jail. The charge against Rice was that of stealing a basket of fish from Richard Watkins, an aged, crippled man who sells fish to make a living. Rice was given the fish to sell, but he failed to return with the money after they were sold.

M. H. S. TO PLAY AT ASHLAND.

Although dejected for the first time by the Huntington high last Friday, the Ashland boys are not at all discouraged and expect to add another game to their string of victories. Maysville high has a good team and have improved much since the beginning of the season. The game will by no means be a runaway for Ashland.—Ashland Independent.

DO NATIONS GO CRAZY?

In one day we have three expressions by high German authorities bearing upon the neutral rights of the United States.

Ambassador von Bernstorff at Washington informs the State Department that unless we compel Great Britain to keep its hands off food intended for Germany's civil population, his country will begin a naval warfare based upon unprecedented practices. This seems to mean that we must become an ally of the Kaiser or take the consequences.

Without establishing a blockade, the German admiralty reiterates its warning to all neutrals to keep out of British waters on pain of being torpedoed "accidentally." This amounts to a declaration of war against the whole world.

The German Foreign Office admits that from the American viewpoint certain questions raised by this government as to Germany's proposal to run amuck are "quite justified," and yet it "adheres to its own viewpoint," which is that international law is played out, and it can see no reason why this should involve the United States and Germany in difficulties.

Do nations go crazy?—New York World.

NATURE'S INDEPENDENT SOVEREIGN.

The following concerning the life of the farmer is true in every particular statement: The farmer doesn't have to solicit patronage from any one. He doesn't have to enter into competition and strife with any of his neighbors like a merchant; he doesn't have to wrangle for a living like a lawyer; he doesn't have to depend upon his collections reluctantly doled out as editors do; in fact, he can be the most independent man on God's green earth if he manages his business in a business like way. He has more time and opportunity for cultivating his mind; he has fewer allurements for corrupting his morals, and his occupation is more conducive to the highest development of his physical power than any other.

MR. RIDDER IS MISTAKEN.

Writing in the Staats Zeitung, Herman Ridder insists that "the right of Germany to establish a war area" is conceded. On the contrary, it is conceded by nobody. War zones on the high seas are unknown to international law.

The right to establish a blockade is conceded, provided the blockade be effective, but a war zone not a blockade. If the German government would declare a part of the high seas a war zone, it would declare all the high seas a war zone, which neutral ships would plough at their own peril.

The doctrine asserted at Berlin is so fantastic that if it were less serious it would be ridiculous. —New York World.

"A HUNDRED WOMEN IN ONE."

Miss Letha Walters, leading woman in the company of "Within the Law," thinks that one of the easiest things to do is to fall in love. "Every woman does it every time she meets a man who looks like her ideal," she says. "The trouble is that every woman is a hundred women in one, and the man that fits one mood is alien to another. Since she gives up everything for marriage, she has a right to demand everything in return. The clinging vine won't do for 1915 A. D. No crumbs from the floor for me."

SOUND VIEWS OF PROF. TAFT.

That members of the cabinet should have the privilege of the floor in Congress without a vote; that postmasters should come under the classified civil service rule, and that the President should be elected for a longer term and not eligible for reelection were some of the points made by former President Taft in an address at Utica, N. Y.

BAN ON KAISER POSTCARDS.

The British authorities, acting in conjunction with the French military censorship, intends to discourage sending to the front, from friends at home, picture postcards ridiculing or caricaturing the Kaiser or the German crown prince.

It has been discovered that where such productions have been found on prisoners or wounded soldiers, the men have, according to the German military code, rendered themselves liable to summary treatment.

In some cases they have been maltreated or even shot.

Nothing apparently annoys a German more than to discover that a captured enemy possesses pictures derogatory to the Kaiser or his family.

For that reason it is better not to ridicule the Kaiser—"certainly not at the front."—Cartoons Magazine.

SOMETHING BETTER.

Believe me, there should be something else taught in our high schools than that to merely graduate and the race for success has been won. Pound it into a boy's head that the race in life's battle has just started when he graduates. Never let him get into his head that an education eliminates him from toil. The next Legislature should provide that each high school should have an agricultural department, and learn the boys what scientific farming really is. Live plants well taken care of are more profitable than dead languages well spoken.—Falmouth Outlook.

TAINTED MONEY.

Among the men convicted of vote-selling up in Pike county, Kentucky, was a negro Baptist preacher. He justified his act by saying that he took this money for his church. This is a plain case of tainted money. It has many forms on a rich and fashionable scale, but in the last analysis it comes right down to the level of this negro preacher selling his vote. The taint follows the gift as codfish sticks to a skillet.—Ohio State Journal.

DON'T CUSS THE FARMER.

It's no use to cuss the farmer because of the high price of flour. He has no hand in it. The high price for wheat came on after he had sold at 70 cents. There is no excuse for the high price either. Very little has as yet gone abroad.—Hartford Republican.

The Pennsylvania railroad has issued a complete statement of the fatalities on the big system in 1914. A total of 301 persons lost their lives while trespassing, and 19 in various ways, such as jumping on and off trains and careless at stations. No passenger was killed in a train accident.

The roll of honor of the Pennsylvania railroad contains 4,336 names of employees who have been retired on pensions since the plan went into effect in 1900. During less than 15 years the pension payments under the plan amounted to $10,788,054.

The Shelby Record says that out in Kansas, where the importation of wine for sacramental purposes only is permitted, one church with a membership of 65, received three barrels of wine monthly from a Kansas City liquor house.

Rocking the Boat.

"He took her out boating the other day."

"Well?"

"And they got to talking about what he would do if the boat should capsize."

"Well?"

"He told her he would clasp her in his arms and keep her head above water."

"Well?"

"She immediately capsized the boat."

How He Started.

Lawyer—"You assert your son has worked on a farm over since he was born?"

Witness—"I do."

Lawyer—"What did he do the first year?"

Witness—"HE MILKED."

OUR CITIZEN'S DEMAND

Fully Complied With—A Maysville Resident Furnished It.

There are few items which appear in this paper more important to Maysville people than the statement published below. In the first place, it is from a citizen of Maysville and can be thoroughly relied upon. In the second place it indisputably proves that Doan's Kidney Pills do their work thoroughly and not temporarily. Read this carefully: Frederick Dreesel, 1238 E. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder and annoyance from my kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back which interfered with my duties. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. Since using them I have had no trouble. All I said about Doan's Kidney Pills before, still holds good."

Mr. Dreesel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Dreesel had—the remedy backed by home testimony, 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back Is Lame—Remember the Name."

VAST ESTATE

Of Leonard Case At Cleveland—Heirs Lost Many Millions By Fraud Says Attorney Strother.

(Vanceburg Sun.)

Attorney J. P. Strother returned last Thursday from Cleveland where he had been sent by Mason county heirs of the estate of Leonard Case, Jr., to see if there was anything left of the estate that they could recover. He found that the estate had consisted of a large area of land in the center of the city of Cleveland and is today worth at least $100,000,000.

The property was owned by Leonard Case at the time of his death but seems to have been sold and transferred by his administrator.

Over $930,000 had been handled and passed upon by the court but only $150,870.41 had been paid to the heirs.

There could be no doubt that the perjury setting up the estate perpetrated fraud upon the heirs and embezzled many millions of dollars, of which Mr. Strother is of the opinion that there is no possibility of the heirs recovering any part.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY ORDERS

Bear Dating At Baltimore and Have Some Difference In Lettering.

Postmasters throughout the country have been notified of the circulation of counterfeit money orders. A warning has been issued to all persons against cashing orders from strange persons. The following is the description given by the Postoffice Department of the counterfeit: The printing of the counterfeit is good and well executed. There is a slight difference in size in some of the letters of the printed text and in the figures of the left hand marginal guard. The M. O. B. dating stamp is one-sixteenth of an inch wider than on the genuine order. The counterfeit is easily detected, however, by the paper, which is what is commercially known as "aid" paper instead of "safety" paper.

SIXTY THOUSAND BARRELS

Of Cement To Be Used In Construction of River Dam No. 33.

Word was given out the first of the week that a contract had been made with the Ironton Cement Company for furnishing 60,000 barrels of cement to be used in construction of Dam No. 33, to be erected just above Maysville during the coming season.

Preliminary work looking toward actual construction is being carried forward by the Bates Rogers Construction Company, which has the contract and, as soon as conditions will permit that will be started. The dam will cost $1,500,000.

NO "STOCK SALES" FOR AWHILE.

As part of the measures which have been taken to stamp out the foot and mouth disease, of which there has recently been a recrudescence among cattle and swine, the State Livestock Sanitary Board has issued an order forbidding "court day sales," one of the historic institutions of Kentucky.

MUCH TOBACCO UNSOLD.

(Mt. Olivet Tribune.)

Perry Liviuille was in Bracken last week and informs us that a considerable number of farmers in that county had not yet sold their tobacco.

FARMING PROSPECTS ARE FLATTERING.

With the few days of weather indicating spring, attention is called to farm work for the coming season. It would appear that of all the seasons this will be one when every acre of tillable land should be under cultivation. To do this, then, it will be well for every suitable period for plowing be grasped with a vim. There is already a large acreage of wheat, but somebody has come forward with the statement that there is still opportunity for spring wheat, something that was never given a trial in this portion of the country. At any rate, the farmer owner ought not fail to be ready to hit the first and last kick when the time arrives. His going to mean dollars in his pocket, with the rest of the world engaged otherwise.—Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.

The Richmond Tobacco Warehouse Company of Richmond, has been given a verdict for $10,000 damages against certain persons whom it charged with conspiring together to pay less for tobacco at its warehouse than at other similar markets.

An irresistible impulse brought about by Leut. caused Frank Madlenn to leave Steubenville, O., and return to New York to face a five-year-old murder charge.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16."

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one druggist in this city who has been able to cure in all stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars to any one who will take it and cure. Send for full particulars.

TEN DAYS, FIFTY DOLLARS AND DISFRANCHISEMENT.

(Falmouth Penitentiary.)

John Courtney was arraigned before County Judge Clark last Monday morning, charged with carrying concealed weapons. He was given ten days, $50 and two years disfranchisement. Courtney accidentally discharged a gun in the waiting room at the depot Sunday, which led to his arrest. Fortunately, no one was hurt.

THE OPENING DAY OF THE BIG FAIR AT SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, Cal., February 20.—The great state of California, whose men and women have been famous in days of peace and renewed in war, whose citizens are as patriotic as are those of any of the galaxy of states in the Union, whose history is a book of great achievements, of romance and of industry, whose products in agriculture, horticulture, mineralogy, as well as in literature and in art, are among the best that this country can offer, is today the happiest among the many over which the old flag floats in grace and in pride.

The Panama-Pacific International Exposition is a reality. Today, with simple but impressive ceremonies, the great fair which is intended as a national celebration of the completion of the Panama Canal, was formally dedicated and opened to the world.

An event of such magnitude could not have been initiated under more favorable auspices, from the invocation which opened the dedication exercises until there came the telegraphic signal from President Wilson which communicated the energy to the great machinery display.

Everything moved with the smoothness of a well regulated military machine, amid all the music, the cheers of the great throngs and the animated scenes in and about the mammoth exhibition palaces.

The official hour for the commencement of the exercises was 10:30 o'clock. Long before this time the grounds were filled with nearly half the population of San Francisco and the neighboring cities, and the remainder apparently was thronging to the exposition grounds. To the many thousands of the local population were added many more who came in on excursion trains last night and this morning.

History of the Exposition.

Five years have elapsed since the idea that culminated in the formal opening this morning of the Panama-Pacific exposition was given birth. When the project of building the great canal across the isthmus of Panama had progressed far enough to assure its successful fulfillment, the suggestion came from several quarters that the termination of the herculean engineering task should be commemorated by the great world exposition ever held. It is doubtful, however, whether the imagination of those who first suggested the holding of the exposition could have conjured up the stupendous results that were to spring from their simple but patriotic proposition.

The Grounds and Buildings.

The site of the exposition lies along the North Beach frontage of the bay, just inside the Golden Gate. The tract is about two miles long and one-half mile wide and comprises 635 acres. The western end of the grounds is on a portion of the Presidio, the United States military reservation. On this are located the most of the foreign and state pavilions. Eleven main exhibition palaces cover the central section of the grounds, and the eastern division forms the amusement section, called "The Zone."

The exposition grounds are in a natural amphitheater with the bay to the front and the city residence section on the hills to the back. With the ocean, the bay and the hills for its setting, a more picturesque and beautiful sight could not have been found.

The most impressive architectural feature of the exposition is the Court of the Universe, which aims to unify the Orient and Occident. To the east the court opens into the Court of Alban-dance and to the west into the Court of the Four Seasons. Famous artists have contributed to the effectiveness of these broad plazas by providing symbolic statues which, mounted on huge arches and grouped about the fountains, make concrete the abstract ideas of the architects.

Grouped about the Court of the Universe are the main exhibition structures, eleven in number. These are devoted to exhibits of manufactures, machinery, mines and metallurgy, transportation, agriculture, education, food products, liberal arts, fine arts, horticulture, electricity and varied industries. The largest of these is the Palace of Machinery, which cost more than $800,000 and has a total length of nearly 1,000 feet.

Some of the exhibit palaces have as much as nine acres of floor space. The combined exhibit space of the main buildings grouped about the central court is 3,731,500 square feet. The main group has the general appearance of being under one roof, as the buildings are connected by arches and courts. In addition, the domes on the corners of each of the buildings are of the same height and the minarets, ridges and turrits of each are placed in corresponding positions. A striking exception is the Palace of Horticulture, which is built in the style of a Turkish mosque and surmounted by the largest glass dome in the world.

State and Foreign Participation.

The flags of several of the warring nations float side by side in peace today, and they have for company not only the Stars and Stripes, but also the ensigns of nearly all the other nations of the world. In the western section of the exposition grounds many acres are dotted over with handsome buildings erected by foreign nations, and these in turn are surrounded by numerous state buildings. Many of the last named contain exhibits illustrating the industries and resources of the states represented, but the foreign buildings are to be devoted mainly to the reception and entertainment of native visitors and as headquarters of the commissioners from the respective countries.

With the exception of Great Britain and Germany, all the leading countries of the world are participating officially in the exposition and these two are well represented by private exhibitors.

Wonders of "The Zone."

There was a veritable babble this morning in "the Zone," Japanese and Chinese, Mexicans and Spaniards, Filipinos and Javanese, and a host of representatives of other lands brim-full of enthusiasm, lent their voices to the loud acclaim that signaled the opening of the exposition to the world. Occupying the entire eastern division of the exposition grounds, this section with its name suggestive of the great canal across the isthmus, is probably the most unique attraction of the great enterprise.

"The Zone" aims to combine amusement with education. Included among the countless attractions are many features of great educational value. To gather the various attractions represent an investment of more than $10,000,000. Among the most pretentious features are reproductions of the Grand Canyon of Arizona, Yellowstone Park, the Panama canal and submarines in motion.

Scattered about over the large tract devoted to these amusement features are a Florida "alligator farm," a reproduction of the Dayton Road, "Jimmie," a reproduction of a 49 camp with its typical dance halls, saloons and gambling places, together with a reproduction of Sutter Mill, where gold was first discovered in California.

In "Toyland" are to be found all the attractions of a miniature Coney Island. The Tehuantepec Village shows a faithful reproduction of scenes typical of the far-famed isthmus in lower Mexico, with tropical verdure, sunken water gardens and fair Tehuanna maidens playing the arts and industries of their native land. More pretentious is Japan's representation of the far-famed mountain of Fujiyama, together with street scenes in Tokio. In the line of big spectacles are the "Battle of Gettysburg," "Creation" and "Dreadnaught." Most conspicuous of all the Zone features, because of its great height is the Aero-scapes, a huge inverted pendulum operating like a giant see-saw, with a balancing weight on one end and a car for passengers at the extremity of its long arm, which will raise eightseers more than 325 feet above the ground and give them a view of the country for 50 miles around.

More than 200 delegates are in attendance from eastern Kentucky counties at the meeting of the Big Sandy Good Roads Association in session at Ashland.

The Liquor License Board for Brown county (O.) has been appointed. Henry Fleig of Ripley and William O. Kelly of Fayetteville, constitute the board.

The new outbreak of the foot and mouth disease in stock yards of nine cities is not regarded by Department of Agriculture officials as seriously as the former outbreak because it does not attack stock held on farms.

A big stallion belonging to J. L. Moore, a farmer near Evansville, Ind., bit off a cow's tongue while the latter was trying to reach for some hay in the manger. The stallion was in a stall on the opposite side of the manger. The tongue was found in the bottom of the stall.

ARRESTED FOR "MALICIOUS MISCHIEF."

Portsmouth.—A warrant charging Cecil Burton, 17, and Glenn Morris, 18, with "malicious mischief" was issued in Squire Braden's court at Fullerton, Ky., Wednesday. Burton will be given a hearing before Squire Braden. He has been released on $100 bond. Morris has not been located. The arrest of Burton and a warrant for Morris' arrest comes as a sequel to a prank they are alleged to have perpetrated on Wednesday, February 10, by waking a bed on the C & O tracks and causing the engineer of a freight train to apply the air-brake and this caused the train to be derailed.

THIS IS THE REAL CANDY KID.

(Vanceburg Sun.)

A dry man from Tolleboro did a prosperous bootlegging business openly in front of the court house Monday. He had his pockets full of pint and quart bottles filled with an exceedingly fine quality of home-made mule syrup and it sold almost as fast as it had been sure enough bottled "personal liberty." The vendor of the syrup was Harold Hanrick, and we can testify to the quality of his goods because he presented us with a bottle to sample. Bootleggers of his kind are always welcome in Vanceburg.

"Oh, yes I do. I love you so much that I can't tell you how much I love you. And do you love me?"

"Oh, yes. So much."

"How much do you love me?"

"I love you just as much as you have said you couldn't tell me how much you love me."

"Don't you love me any more than that?"

"Oh, yes. I love you as much as I can't tell you how much you couldn't tell me. Do you love me as much as that?"

"Oh, yes. I love you more than that. I love you so much that it what holds of us cannot tell the other how much we love should be put together, I would still love you so much more than this that I couldn't begin to tell you how much more I couldn't tell you. Oh, please say that you love me more than this!"

"I do, I do! I love you so much more than—"

"Had we better call the police or the undertaker?"

(Neither, dear Br'er Jim. Don't wake 'em up yet.)

VIRGINIA STUFFED HAM.

Put one ham into boiling water and cook three hours; cool and remove the skin and bone. Make a dressing of a loaf of white bread, three onions (chopped fine), one tablespoon butter, one teaspoon each celery seed, sage and thyme, and a little pepper and salt. Make a deep incision in the ham and re-serve the bone. Fill the cavity with the dressing. Sprinkle with brown sugar and bake slowly for two and one half hours. Baste with the liquor in which the ham was boiled.

DO YOU WANT A FARM THAT YOU CAN MAKE MONEY ON? IF SO, YOU WILL INVEST IN THIS ONE

Mr. George E. Himes of Lewis county has placed with us for sale two farms that adjoin. One, a farm of 170 acres, the other 50 acres. The 170-acre farm has on it a two-story, seven-room frame house in good condition, tobacco barn 40x60, stock barn 36x36, usual out-buildings. The 50-acre farm has a small house of four rooms, tobacco barn 40x40, 25 acres of bottom land with this farm. Both places have good orchards with a variety of fruit. Josh Billings Says:

"The time to set a hen is when she wants it."

That sound philosophy is likewise true of men. The time to sell them winter clothes is when they want them. And this community is happy in the possession of a number of such citizens.

Yet, in most stores, as the man of the street would say, "pickings are now mighty slim." Ragged assortments, broken down lots, odds and ends and leftovers are not a tempting dish to set before a clothes hungry man.

But at the live store we replenish our stock as fast as it is depleted so that our selections are as full, our variety as diverse, as they were when the season opened—and the prices are reduced.

The fight we enter upon February 18 must be fought with all recklessness or not at all, and we Germans have resolved to fight without regard for the consequences."

AMERICAN PRESS ON GERMANY'S DECLARATION.

Following are excerpts from editorials upon the German reply to the American protest against the terms of the war zone decree:

Public Ledger, Philadelphia.—The reply is another blinding indiscretion in the long list which German diplomacy has furnished to the world.

Times, New York.—The weakness of the arguments used by Germany is perfectly obvious.

World, New York.—It is not our fault that British sea power is slowly crushing Germany.

Evening Post, New York.—The German government has no desire to become needlessly embroiled with the United States.

A Good Start.—People are becoming interested early in the Maysville revival, which has begun at the Baptist church. The pastor delivered a real live message last night on "Dry Bones." Tonight, Rev. Wilhoite will

A Growing Enterprise.—The growth of Christianity throughout the world is one of the marvels of modern times. The number of Christians in foreign lands has doubled in about 11 years. The Christian church (Disciples of Christ) is participating heartily in the world wide enterprise. In recent years they have made very commendable growth in numbers, in educational institutions and in world wide missions. This church conducts missions in China, Japan, India, the Philippines, Africa and Cuba. In these lands the staff of evangelists and other Christian workers number nearly 1,000, supported by the Foreign Christian Missionary Society of this church. Last year their medical missionaries treated 151,000 patients. This is of itself a tremendous task. It is about 500 each day. And the Disciples support 115 schools in these lands, with an attendance of nearly 6,000 pupils. Their orphanage work is large and important. For example, they own a farm of about 400 acres at Danah, India, where they conduct a large orphanage, including important industrial training. The Foreign Christian Missionary Society has been in existence 40 years, and has sent out from America in that time 351 missionaries. The total receipts during this period have reached the great sum of nearly $6,000,000. This organization has property on the foreign fields it cultivates worth almost a million dollars. A special day is set apart in all the churches of this religious body for Foreign Missions. It is the first Sunday in March, and the churches this year are asked for $500,000. No doubt the Disciples in this community will do their full share toward reaching the half million dollars. Last year the receipts of this society were $404,149. The receipts have gained every year but one for 14 years, and they have more than doubled in ten years. In spite of the great war in Europe a substantial increase is expected this year. The Christian church of Mason county will again give to this great cause. These churches pay the salary of Mrs. F. C. Buck, who is at Lunehow, China. Some of the churches will take a special offering for this on March 7.

First Baptist Church.—"Soul Satisfaction Service" at 10:45 a. m. and "A Busy, Inactive Man" at 7 p. m. are the subjects that the pastor will handle tomorrow. The revival continues to grow in interest and power; every member of this church should strive to be a revival music. There will be special revival music at both services. Sunday school begins promptly at 9:30 a. m. The pastor has some special work for the children to do for the revival, so he desires a full attendance tomorrow. The B. Y. P. U. services begin at 6 p. m. There will be a doctrinal meeting with the subject, "Sanctification." These services are open to all friends and especially do we invite the visitors who sojourn within our gates.
